If you kill the germ, you stop the consumption. You can or can't, according to when you begin.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Communication.

The following communication received last week, too late for publication, will explain itself, and will be of interest to our subscribers and the public generally: Mr. Editor—I have invented a pay card system for sending money through the mail of the United States and flag countries, on a plan with features which are uncontrovertibly on a line of reforms advanced for increasing money value remittances in the mail, and is what I call my superceding proportioning card, viz., for small money value only, from $1.01 inclusive to one cent. The cost with those of P. O. money orders made disproportionately lower and the pay card carries $1.01 to 1 cent is for superseding P. O. money order of many values of those sums. I have sent the plans to the papers and expect the people to make the fight. I have submitted a plan to the Department on the 10th. It is the only plan to rid the mails of stamps and coins. Yours truly,

JULIAN BETTON.

THE MOUNTAIN LION.

Over here riden, through dense thickets gliding. Stealthy and sure do I follow my prey! Along the dark canyons, in tangled ferns hiding. Relentless I trail, and remorseless I slay! Strong are my sinews and trackless my windings; Noiseless as sleep is the fall of my paws; Steathed in the folds of their velvety binding. Tougher and sharper than steel are my claws. Swift as a sword are my eyes in their seeking. Piercing the day or the blackness of night; Neek is my muzzle, with blood often reeking; Ready my teeth for the foe man who fights; I am a king; dost thou ask me to battle? Gather thy strength, for I give not a sign! What! Art thou sounding so soon the death rattle? I drink to thy health in the blood that was thine! —Alfred Townsend in Overland Monthly.

Applying the Rule.

After Sunday school little Ned and his younger cousin, Horton, were permitted to play in the yard on condition that they would be very good and quiet. They had not been out long when Ned's mother heard loud screams. Upon investigating the cause she found her small son sitting on his cousin, pounding him vigorously in spite of Horton's pitiful wails. "Well, mamma," Ned exclaimed, "I wanted to teach him the golden rule, and he said he wouldn't learn it."
